Jasper Hill

Established in 1975, Jasper Hill has become an iconic Australian winery.

Founders Ron and Elva Laughton, together with their daughters Emily and Georgia, aim to make great wine with the preservation of nature's flavours, complexities and balance by using minimal intervention techniques.

Jasper Hill Vineyards are organically farmed and are unirrigated resulting in low yields giving great depth and intensity of flavor to the wines. Jasper Hill wines are highly sought after and much regarded.

Benjamin Leroux

Benjamin Leroux has been identified as one of the most prodigious young talents in the wine industry by leading Burgundy critics. Having gained considerable experience managing and making the wines at Domaine Comte Armand, Leroux launched his own label with the 2007 vintage. Whilst Leroux works on his vision to build an estate, he currently works very closely with grape growers across many famous terroirs that will produce the quality of fruit to match his own high standards. All the vineyards that Leroux works with are currently organic or in a transitional period to being organic. Don't miss your chance to try these wines before they hit stratospheric Burgundy prices!
